| Accident description (Describe the sequence of events that directly caused the injury or death.) While lifting a 120-lb condenser unit with a coworker at a customer's residence, I lost footing on the basement stairs. I twisted to keep unit from falling, felt a sharp pull in my lower back and braced myself with my right hand on the rail, spraining my wrist. No fall to the ground occurred, but pain increased immediately and I reported incident to my supervisor on site.                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                              |  |                                                                                                   |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                                    |  |                                                                                                                                                                                                            |  |                                                                                  |  | Will the incident cause the injured worker to miss 8 or more days from work? <input checked="" type="checkbox"/> Yes <input type="checkbox"/> No |  |                           |  |                          |  |
